Why Screen for Sleep Problems in Children with Attentional, Memory and Regulation Problems?

NEW DATE!

Dr Louise Scott, Paediatric Neuropsychologist, will discuss the relationship between sleep, attention, memory, executive deficits associated with ADHD and learning disabilities and explain the complications of sleep deprivation. Dr. Scott works part-time at Grand River Hospital and is in private practice in Paris, Ontario. She has a strong background in neurosciences. Recently she included sleep inventories into her practice. She has 30 years experience working with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder and is also an expert in Paediatric Brain Injury. This workshop will be of interest to parents, teachers, and professionals.
